

February 2016 Movie Matinees Every Thursday at 2:00 pm

When it's cold outside... try to warm up with some HOT new films!

February 4 - The Walk (2015) (PG)

Adventure/Biography/Drama - 123 minutes.

True and inspirational story of French high-wire artist Philippe Petit (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) who realizes his dream to span the immense void between World Trade Center Twin Towers, in 1974. Petit works to accomplish this one-of-a-kind feat, guided by his real-life mentor, Papa Rudy (Ben Kingsley), and aided by an unlikely band of international recruits, all while dealing with logistical problems and the concerns of his loved ones. Come enjoy this love letter to Paris and New York City in the 1970's and take your chance for all ages to experience the feeling of reaching the clouds.

February 11 - The Intern (2015) (PG-13)

Comedy - 121 minutes.

A successful retired business owner and recent widower (Robert De Niro) lands a quite coveted internship at a fashion website founded and run by a young, career-driven woman (Anne Hathaway). Experience never gets old!

February 18 - Our Brand is Crisis (2015) (R)

Comedy, Satire, Drama - 107 minutes.

In this satirical comedy, loosely based on the 2005 documentary, a "battle-hardened" American political consultant (Sandra Bullock) is sent to help re-elect a controversial president in Bolivia, who has fallen behind in the polls. She faces off in this inside look at this high-stakes, win-at-all-costs world of politics, against her own long-term rival (Billy Bob Thornton), who works for the opposing candidate. On the edge of our own election, enjoy laughing at just some of the insanity behind the political scenes.

February 25 - Freeheld (2015) (PG-13)

Biography/Drama - 103 minutes.

A true story concerning a NJ veteran detective named Laurel Hester, who is dying from terminal lung cancer. Her dying wish is that her state pension be granted to her registered domestic same-sex partner (Ellen Page), a significantly younger woman who works as a car mechanic and tries to manage Laurel's increasingly difficult treatments. With the help of Laurel's longtime detective partner (Michael Shannon) and a flamboyant Jewish gay rights activist (Steve Carell), who serves as the chairman for Garden State Equality, she struggles to do nothing more than provide for her partner, after her passing.
