DATE/TIME: September 22, 2016 @ 7:00pm

LOCATION: Township of Ocean, Town Hall

OFFICERS INVOLVED: Lieutenants Thomas Burke and Gregory Schenck,
Sergeants Mark Del Tin and Jeffrey Malone

NARRATIVE:

The Township of Ocean Police Department is pleased to announce the promotions of Thomas Burke and Gregory Schenck to the rank of Lieutenant. Their promotions became effective on Monday, September 5, 2016. The department also is pleased to announce the promotions of Mark Del Tin and Jeffrey Malone to the rank of Sergeant. Their promotions also became effective September 5, 2016. The public swearing ceremony was held at the Township Council meeting on September 22, 2016. (See the attached photo with the Mayor and Council.)

Lieutenant Burke has served our agency since 1994 and spent the last ten years as a Sergeant in the Detective Bureau. Lieutenant Schenck has served our agency since 2002 and his most recent assignment was supervising a squad as a Sergeant in the Patrol Bureau. Both Lieutenants have been assigned to the Patrol Bureau and will supervise the eight Sergeants in the Patrol Bureau and handle administrative tasks.

Sergeant Del Tin has served our agency since 2005 where he has been assigned to the Patrol Bureau. During this time Del Tin has served as a Firearms Instructor, Dive Operator and a Field Training Officer. Sergeant Malone has served our agency since 2005 where he was hired as a Special Law Enforcement Officer, then became a police officer and was assigned to the Patrol Bureau. Malone's last assignment was working in the Detective Bureau. Both Sergeants have been assigned to the Patrol Bureau where they will supervise a squad of patrol officers.
