

July 2015 Movies - Thursday at 2:00 pm

July 2 - To Kill A Mockingbird (1962)(NR)

In preparation for the mid-July release of "Go Set A Watchman," Harper Lee's anticipated book to follow her classic novel "To Kill A Mockingbird", we invite you to come to the library's Thursday movie and refresh your memory of To Kill A Mockingbird, with Gregory Peck. Drama - 130 minutes

July 9 - The Wedding Ringer (2015) (R)

This oafish comedy centers on a surrogate best man who offers his "best-man" services to a socially awkward groom in need, just two weeks shy of his wedding. Starring Kevin Hart, Josh Gad, Kaley Cuoco-Sweeting, Ken Howard, and Cloris Leachman. Comedy/Romance - 101 minutes

July 16 - 50 to 1 (2014) (PG-13)

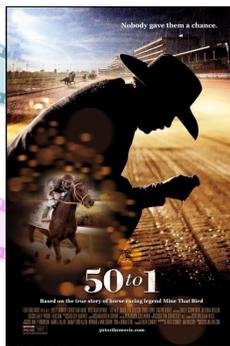

Based on the true story of 2009 Kentucky Derby winner Mine That Bird, this horseracing drama tells the story of horse trainer, veterinarian, and owner who prepare a horse to compete in the Kentucky Derby. A human story for horse lovers and non-horse lovers, alike. Staring Skeet Ulrich, Christian Kane, and William Devane. Drama - 90 minutes.

July 23 - Superman (1978) (PG)

Escape to the library and step into the world of a super-hero for a few hours, as Clark Kent turns from nerdy newspaper reporter to a heroic protector. Original motion picture adapted from the DC comic books, depicting Christopher Reeve as the Man of Steel, as well as featuring Marlon Brando, Margot Kidder, Gene Hackman, and Ned Beatty. Action/Drama/Sci-Fi - 143 minutes.

July 30 - Gone Girl (2015) (R)

Based on the global bestseller by Gillian Flynn, the library invites you to join us and look into some of the secrets at the heart of a modern marriage in this dramatic thriller. A perfect "date movie" for couples who dream of destroying one-another. Starring Ben Affleck, Rosamund Pike, Neil Patrick Harris, and Tyler Perry. Drama/Mystery/Thriller - 149 minutes.
