An adult guest at recent American Girl Doll Tea was overheard to remark, "This is the bargain of the century!"

We agree.

And the seventh annual American Girl Tea, scheduled for 1 to 3:30, Sunday, July 12 (rain date July 19), continues the tradition. Indoor galleries full of doll and teddy bear collections. A living history interpreter demonstrating spinning to wide-eyed little girls. A fashion show featuring each girl's doll and its story. A craft project. A Museum Shop stocked with handmade doll clothes and accessories. An original story of the Woolley sisters. And a tasty tea party of home-made, kidfriendly treats.

Tickets are just $30 and admit one child (5 years and older) and one adult. Tickets for additional children are $10 each and addition adults are $25.

Tickets go on sale June 1st. Seating is limited and reservations are a must. Call 732-531-6040 or the Museum at 732-531-2136 to save your spot.

ALL TICKETS MUST BE PURCHASED IN ADVANCE. EVERY YEAR IS A SELL OUT SO DON'T WAIT TO GET YOUR TICKETS. Please buy your tickets early. They must be purchased in advance--none are sold at the door.
