

BOY SCOUT TROOP 71, Oakhurst, NJ
Established 1941

PRESS RELEASE

Oakhurst, NJ, Boy Scout Troop 71 invites boys in 5th to 8th grades to our “Troop Open House” Come see what our active troop has to offer.

Scout skills, Camping, Hiking, Canoe & Kayaking, Exploring, High Adventure Activities and displays of past trips and Summer Camp!
See a Scout camp site, Backpacking camp site, camp fire building, Dutch oven cooking, hot dogs, drinks and more.

Open House: April 25, 2015 Times 10AM – 2PM

Location: 70 Larkin Place (next to Oakhurst Fire House)

Contact: Scoutmaster Donald Paterson scouterdrp@yahoo.com

About Troop 71

Established in 1941, Troop 71 is a very active Boys Scout Troop that resides in its own “Scout House” at 70 Larkin Place, in Oakhurst, NJ
The troop prides itself as being a youth led scout organization. The Boy Scout Program is designed as an adventure in self-discovery. Boys learn the skills and knowledge to “Be Prepared” for all aspects of life, and to become strong, self-reliant young men, good citizens and leaders of the future.

Prepared for Life